

To Hope and Back: Section 3

Name: _____ Date: _____

Lisa (p.44-50) | Sol (p.51-56) | What the Captain Knew (p.57-60)

Vocabulary

Read each word and its definition. Then choose the correct word for each sentence from the book.

1	chandelier	a branched lighting fixture usually hanging from a ceiling
2	horizon	the line where the earth or sea seems to meet the sky
3	strict	demanding that rules concerning behaviour are obeyed and observed
4	queasy	somewhat nauseated
5	goblets	drinking glasses with a foot and stem
6	telegram	a message sent by telegraph and then delivered in printed form
7	horrid	horrible
8	porthole	an opening in the side of a ship
9	scarce	lacking; not plentiful
10	gnawing	irritating

- 1) Sometimes my grandmother is so _____, like when she used to cook for us, and nothing was allowed to remain on our plates. (p.45)
- 2) I'm still feeling _____. (p.45)
- 3) When I open the _____, the water is just beneath the window. (p.51)
- 4) I'd give anything to get off of this _____, heaving, tilting boat! (p.50)
- 5) The _____ is a straight line in the far distance where the green sea meets the perfect blue sky. (p.45)
- 6) In the months when Papa was away and money was _____, there was so little to eat. (p.52)
- 7) There is fancy china, as good as Oma's, and crystal water _____ that sound like musical notes when they are tapped. (p.46)
- 8) I had never been in an elevator, and I wondered at the shiny brass fittings and soft light from the little _____ above my head. (p.44)
- 9) I often went to bed with a _____ hollow in my stomach. (p.52)
- 10) Within an hour of leaving the Hamburg port, Captain Schroeder received a _____ from his head office in Germany. (p.57)

Chapter Questions

- 1) How was Sol's experience in this section different from Lisa's?

Chapter Questions

2) Why was the Captain worried about the telegram and information he received? (p.57-

3) What was Decree 937? (p.59)

Personal Reflection

In this section, both Lisa and Sol change their names to more “American” sounding names. Why did they do that? How do you think they felt about this change? Write a reflection paragraph using information from the text as well as your own ideas, opinions, and connections.
